Archives: Hi there, things are looking good for archives. my committee member and I are meeting once a month to work on organizing and proper display of the Room. I was fortunate enough to talk to the area archives chair at our Mini event held in February. He came with the speaker and we discussed the possibility of working together to do more research on some of our aa group connections. He discovered the quad cities may have to other districts other groups for example Burlington Iowa. He offered to help me with organizing and displaying our artifacts and having him possibly come for a workshop. More good things to come, in love and service ronna

Corrections: Hello all! Not much to report with corrections. I have met with Jennifer rice with Scott Co jail and went over the volunteer requirements etc and had a great discussion. I am meeting her Tuesday to do my orientation. She also requested 200 schedules to be available each quarter for inmates! I have met with Maureen (liaison for Bettendorf) and she will be handling the 605 volunteer meeting and scheduling! 605 had also requested materials which I will get with the literature chair to get or do I get them for corrections? What a relief to have a committee with which to share this service opportunity! I have spoken with Troy (liaison for west end) and he is taking care of the RCF schedule and volunteers. Which now leads me to focus on Scott co. We are currently in desperate need of volunteers. I have had 3 very solid volunteers step down due to other commitments. I am really needing a Monday night volunteer once a month and 2 Friday am at 9am volunteers. If you know anyone, have them contact me and I can get application or have them fill out an app and send it to the jail. I have also spoken with Lance (area 24 corrections) and have him lined up to attend our corrections workshop which is now scheduled for July 20th. So in all actuality, I guess a lot is going on!! In love and service Jaclyn M

CPC: I have talked with the Area CPC chair. I am concentrating on the medical community initially. I ran some ideas by Sandye and she agreed with my approach. I will be having a meeting with my committee this month to get the ball rolling. I was contacted by the Legal community with a request for twelve Big Books and twelve 12 Steps and 12 Traditions. The books were provided. I have reviewed the agenda items. In love and service, Park

Grapevine: I'm still in search of volunteers from each group to collect/distribute old Grapevine magazines. Please convey this to your respective groups and have those interested reach out to me. A Grapevine Workshop will be held at the Clinton AA room on Sunday, March 24th shortly after the 9AM meeting. I'll speak with groups in Davenport and Bettendorf to gauge their interest in a Grapevine Workshop of their own. In love and service, Jeremy W.
